

After all the trouble I've had with my current cellular carrier, namely Verizon Wireless, I would love the opportunity to change to another carrier. However, the process of informing all of my clients to the change and changing my business cards and brochures, more than outweighs the punishment I'm forced to endure with Verizon.

I'm not surprised the the nations largest wireless carrier, who because of their terrible service has the most to lose, is fighting to has this issue dropped. I'm sure if passed, this would force them to improve thier ways and fight to keep their market share.
